STIPULATION TO CONTINUE HEARING REGARDING PRETRIAL ORDER

(First Request)

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED by and between Plaintiffs MICHELLE C. ZEITER, Individually and as Special Administrator for ESTATE OF MICHAEL BUCHNA, and JENNIFER C. BEAM, Individually and as Special Administrator for ESTATE OF MICHAEL S. BUCHNA (collectively “Plaintiffs”), by and through their attorneys of record, SIMON LAW and BROCK H. OHLSON PLLC, and Defendants WALMART, INC. and WAL-MART STORES, INC. (collectively

1 “Defendants”), by and through their attorneys of record, HALL & EVANS, LLC (foregoing parties
 2 are collectively referred to hereinbelow as “Parties”), hereby submit their Stipulation and Order to 3 Continue Hearing Regarding Pretrial Order from its current setting of March 12, 2025, to March 26, 4 2025, pursuant to LR IA 6-1. This is the first stipulation for a continuation of the hearing regarding 5 the Pretrial Order.

6 REASONS FOR REQUESTING A CONTINUANCE OF THE MARCH 12, 2025 HEARING

7 The Parties aver that good cause exists to continue the March 12, 2025 hearing regarding the 8 Pretrial Order to Wednesday, March 26, 2025. Consistent with LR 16-3 and the Court’s May 23, 9 2023 Order, the Parties met and conferred regarding the scope of witnesses and exhibits for trial on 10 January 17, 2025, on January 24, 2025, on February 12, 2025, and through several written 11 correspondences. Although the Parties were able to resolve several disputes, various issues remain 12 with respect to the scope of the Parties’ witnesses and exhibits, necessitating the Parties to each 13 submit their individual Pretrial Orders and resulting in the Court noticing a Hearing on the matter on 14 March 12, 2025. See ECF Doc 177 (Feb. 27, 2025). However, lead counsel on this matter, Patrick
 15 McDonnell, planned a prepaid family vacation and will be out of the country from March 10-14, 16 2025. Accordingly, the Parties agree that a brief continuation of the Hearing is warranted to allow 17 counsel to participate in his prepaid family vacation.

18 The Parties further aver that this request is not made for purposes of undue delay of resolving 19 issues surrounding the Pretrial Order or trial in this matter but is submitted in the interests of ensuring 20 this matter is resolved on its merits. Neither Party is prejudiced through this continuation, as all Parties
 21 agree that short continuation to March 26, 2025, is warranted, as set forth herein.
